

VANCOUVER

First Nations Writers

National Indigenous Professional Artist Training
En'owkin Centre Writing Program

Invites Emerging Writers Ages 18+
writing workshop with Gregory Scofield

Thursday March 19, 2026

WHERE: DigiBC, the Creative Technology Association of British Columbia
#160-577 Great Northern Way, Vancouver B.C

*Limited to 10 writers - Honorarium Provided!

What you will need: a poem, story, spoken word piece you have worked on

To Register: Please submit 1 page writing sample to:
Tracey Kim Bonneau achlmanager@enowkincentre.ca

- 12:00 - 1:00 PM Lunch for Participants
- 1:00 - 5:00 PM Writing Workshop Sessions
- 6:30 - 7:30 PM Showcase featuring emerging writers
Reading by Gregory Scofield &
Tracey Kim Bonneau

Photo Credit: Penguin Random House

Gregory Scofield, is of Red River Métis ancestry, family rooted in Kinosota-Reedy Creek, Manitoba, and is a professor of writing at University of Victoria.

He is a recipient of several prestigious awards, including the Dorothy Livesay Poetry Prize in 1994, the Queen's Diamond Jubilee Medal in 2012, and the Writers' Trust of Canada Latner Poetry Prize in 2016.

For More Information:

Tracey Kim Bonneau
achlmanager@enowkincentre.ca
Cell: 250-770-0124

Cease Wyss
ceasefire66@gmail.com