

HENRY MICHEL

Henry Michel - is of Secwepemc (Shuswap) ancestry and a member of the Williams Lake Indian Band, has been active in Indigenous education, community development, natural resource management, and social activism. His roles in the community have been as the Coordinator of Race Relations Programs, Director of the En'owkin Adult Basic Education Program, and an adult education instructor at the En'owkin Centre. Michel's published works include a series of Coyote poems, short stories and indigenous knowledge articles.