

KAREN OLSON

B.FA is Ininiwak/Anishnaabe, born and raised on Peguis First Nation in Manitoba. She is an educator, author, activist and a Knowledge Keeper. “Artists, in all art disciplines, are the historians of their nations,” says Karen. “We tell the stories of our past, present and even our future by learning and listening, and to fulfill a desire to tell our own truths.”